Conditions

This certificate is issued subject to the following conditions. It is an offence to fail to comply with any of the conditions below. Maximum penalty for non-compliance: six months imprisonment and/ or a fine.

- 1 The holder must, on receipt of the certificate, sign it in ink with his usual signature.
- 2 The holder of this certificate must inform within seven days the chief officer of police by whom this certificate was granted of the theft, loss or destruction in Great Britain of this certificate and/ or the theft, loss, deactivation or destruction of any firearms or ammunition to which it relates.
- 3 The holder of the certificate must, without undue delay, inform the chief officer of police by whom the certificate was granted of any change in his permanent address.

- 4 (a) The firearms and ammunition to which the certificate relates must at all times (except in the circumstances set out in paragraph (b) below) be stored securely so as to prevent, so far as is reasonably practicable, access to the firearms or ammunition by an unauthorised person.
- (b) Where a firearm or ammunition to which the certificate relates is in use or the holder of the certificate has the firearm with him for the purpose of cleaning, repairing or testing it or for some other purpose connected with its use, transfer or sale, or the firearm or ammunition is in transit to or from a place in connection with its use or any such purpose, reasonable precautions must be taken for the safe custody of the firearm or the ammunition.

Additional conditions may be added here by the chief officer of police:
